YOUR COMMITMENT SPONSORS HOPE FOR THE CHURCH.

ALWAYS HOPE

The current world situation is a reminder that the Catholic Church cannot be reduced to a building, a ministry, or a singular moment in time. The people of God—in union with Jesus Christ—are the Church. The Church is alive and fluid, responding to the promptings of the Holy Spirit, which imbues it with fortitude and grace.

In uncertain times, we can be overwhelmed and question long-standing priorities or habits. This spring, Saint Luke Institute affirmed its commitment to treating clergy and religious, remaining open during this pandemic. We have responded to uncertainty by expanding educational programming for all the faithful. We are prepared to conduct more clinical evaluations to meet a rising number of requests from Church leadership. There is a growing demand for our services; we need your help to meet these needs.

Sometimes it is hard to know if the saying, “May you live in interesting times” is a curse or a blessing. As Catholics, there are always challenges, and the measure of our faith is how we respond. I hope you will remember Saint Paul’s exhortation to “never tire of doing what is good” (2 Thessalonians 3:13).

Help us meet the demand for our services that provide healing and renewal of hope to the Church and beyond.

“Our partnership in faith promotes healing in the Church now, and a healthier ministerial culture within the Church for tomorrow.”

~ Rev. David Songy, O.F.M.Cap., S.T.D., Psy.D.
