

23RD ANNUAL BENEFIT SAINT LUKE INSTITUTE

PRESENTATION OF THE 2020 SAINT LUKE AWARD
MOST REVEREND TIMOTHY P. BROGLIO, J.C.D.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2020 | VIRTUAL PRESENTATION

SV. LUKE

WELCOME

October 20, 2020

I am blessed.

Each day I wake with the knowledge that God walks with me though both uncertainty and joy. We are living in hard times, in a period of fear and anxiety. Just a cursory glance at a newspaper or the evening news reminds us that we are often not in control of our circumstances. In these times we may want to draw the blinds, turn inward, and give up. Yet Jesus says in Luke, "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom (12:32)."

God is gracious.

Through Jesus, God has united himself with us. God has experienced despair, suffering, and loss. He knows our full nature and of our capacity for courage, determination, and love. He freely sets before us the kingdom and gives us the opportunity and challenge of bringing it to fruition through our words and actions.

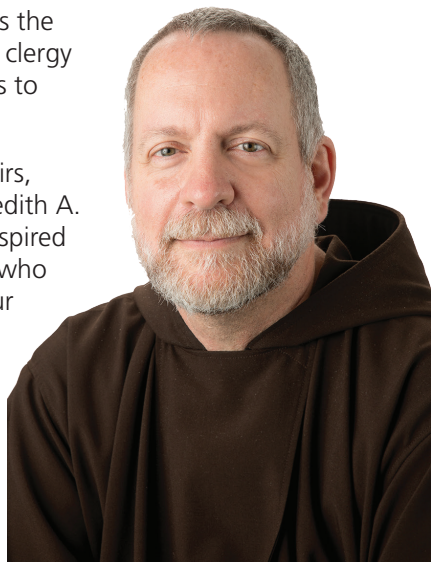

Together we are one.

Alone, the healing ministry offered by Saint Luke Institute is not possible. It is the dedication of clinicians to clients, the bond between bishops and clergy, the tie of superiors and consecrated religious, and the love of lay people for Christ and the church that unites us. Together, we advance a network of care and a healthy, holy, Catholic Church.

This year we are pleased to honor Most Reverend Timothy P. Broglio, J.C.D., Archbishop for the Military Services, U.S.A. with the Saint Luke Award. Through his ministry, he embodies the ideals of the Institute. He wisely shepherds the clergy and military chaplains under his care. He listens to their concerns and responds with compassion.

We also are deeply grateful to our Benefit Chairs, Rear Admiral James Hinkle USN, Ret. and Meredith A. Hinkle, whose passion and enthusiasm have inspired all of us. On behalf of the clergy and religious who benefit from our programs, I thank you for your generosity and prayers.

MESSAGE FROM OUR BENEFIT CHAIRS

October 20, 2020

Dear Friends,

Thank you for joining us on this very special occasion as we honor Most Reverend Timothy P. Broglio, J.C.D., Archbishop for the Military Services, U.S.A. We have known Archbishop Broglio for 12 years and are grateful to Saint Luke Institute for recognizing his ministry, and by extension, our courageous and faithful military chaplains.

Proudly, our son, Father James Hinkle, is a navy chaplain, serving at the Recruit Training Command-Great Lakes, the Navy's only recruit training facility. We know of the long hours, pastoral and sacramental duties, and challenges experienced by our military chaplains. And we are very appreciative that our chaplains, and all clergy and religious, have the resources of Saint Luke Institute to support them in their ministries.

We are also deeply appreciative of all of you. Your support of Saint Luke Institute is a testament to your deep faith and commitment to our Church. Saint Luke Institute is a place of tremendous hope. The staff at Saint Luke Institute works diligently to help priests and religious who are experiencing spiritual and psychological challenges find new strength and healing.

We are grateful, also, for the role Saint Luke Institute plays in keeping our Church healthy as an independent, objective, and professional resource that screens applicants to the priesthood and provides Church leaders with the information they need to guide their decisions.

By your generosity and participation in our Virtual Benefit, you demonstrate that you recognize the vital importance of this work. We thank you for helping make this Benefit successful and especially for your hope and trust in this ministry and those it serves.

Rear Admiral and Mrs.
James B. Hinkle,
USN, Retired

In undertaking these tasks, the honoree is motivated by the gospel ideals of compassion, charity, and a belief that all persons are brothers and sisters in Christ. The award is bestowed each year on or around the October 18 Feast of St. Luke.
